1200 District Mission

The mission of the Yosemite Community College District is:

The Yosemite Community College District is committed to responding to the needs of our diverse community through excellence in teaching, learning and support programs contributing to social, cultural, and economic development and wellness.

The mission is evaluated and revised, as necessary, on a regular basis in alignment with the review cycle for the colleges and accreditation.

The Board of Trustees affirms its unyielding commitment to a diverse, inclusive and mutually respectful institution of learning that welcomes individuals from all backgrounds, perspectives, and walks of life. We welcome all; we serve all.
